Principal’s Message

School Working Bee – Well done to the Dee Why School Community!
The third working bee for 2014 transformed the garden area on Fisher Rd and adjacent to the Dental Clinic. We had a good turn-out of children, parents and staff to make an improvement to the front garden area. Special thanks to the following families for assisting on the day: Roland, Sylvia, Rojan and Gian Alarde, Craig, Jill, Rebecca and Laura Starr, Alexandr, Irina and Luca Botezatu, Caroline and Elena Genovese, Robert and Andrei Lantin, Girish and Himani Sharma, Dhakpa, Iknyen and Norzin Tsering, Lihua Wang and Oliver Chen, Ruve Morris and Will Murray. Extra thanks to staff John Wyllie and Marea Webster for leading the troops, and Lisa Clark, Fran Kean and Suzi Langford for lending a hand, plus Chris and Chris Baker for running a super BBQ lunch.

Make sure you pop on in to take a look at our impressive handiwork.

District Athletics Carnival

Well done to all our competitors in their efforts over 2 jam-packed days of athletics. Highlights include our Senior Boys relay team making it to the finals, along with Kalosipani Hopoate, who placed 1st in her age group for Shotput, 1st in 200m and 2nd in 100m. She will compete in all three events at the Regional Athletics Carnival to be held next Monday at Homebush stadium. Well done, Pani!
